Gail Kellett

Linocut Printmaker

I work from home in McLaren Vale. (South Australia) My ideas reflect the diversity of the region in which I live- rural and urban landscape, native flora and agricultural machinery. I find linocut printmaking a powerful medium- exciting and unpredictable. My work is hand drawn straight onto the lino, which gives it freshness, originality and spontaneity.

Criss Canning

Born Melbourne, Victoria, in 1947

Criss Canning, born in Melbourne 1947, is one of Australia's leading still-life artists, who composes distinctive artworks featuring flora and unique objects. Incredibly accomplished, Criss has devoted the past 50 years to painting. Working with oils, each brushstroke is thoughtfully applied with colour-laden gestures to create two and three dimensional forms.
