Prologue

O*nce, mega-beast and man* shared one world. But it did not last. The beasts wanted to rule the world. They started battles against man. After many bad battles between beast and man the world was split in two. Man was given Earth. Mega-beasts were given Beastium. A border-wall was created. It closed the two worlds off. Man was safe. But not for long...

... ACCESS ...

Beastium was not enough for the mega-beasts. They wanted Earth.

The beasts began to battle through the border-wall. It was the job of the Border Guards to stop them. They had to keep the beasts in Beastium. Some battles were won. Some were lost.

Battles won by the beasts gave them more power. The beasts earned new battle attacks. Battles won by the Border Guards earned them upgrades. Their battle gear could do more.

Five boys now guard the border-wall. They are the Bordaria Border Guards. They are in training to become Border Masters like their dads.

The Bordaria Master Command

The Border Guards' dads and grand-dads are the Bordaria Master Command. The BMC help the Border Guards during battle.

The Border Guards must learn. The safety of Earth depends on them.

The BMC reward good Border Guard battling. Upgrades can be earned for sending beasts back into their lands. New battle gear can also be given to Border Guards who battle well.

If they do not battle well, the Border Guards will lose upgrades and points. Then they will not be given new and better gear.

Kai Masters is a Border Guard in training. His work is top secret. He must protect Earth. The BMC watch Kai closely. Kai must not fail.

Let the battles commence!

CHAPTER 1

Kai Masters was at home. He was playing a computer game. It was called Wild Water Ride. The game was a speedboat race. It was hard. Kai's boat was just out in front.

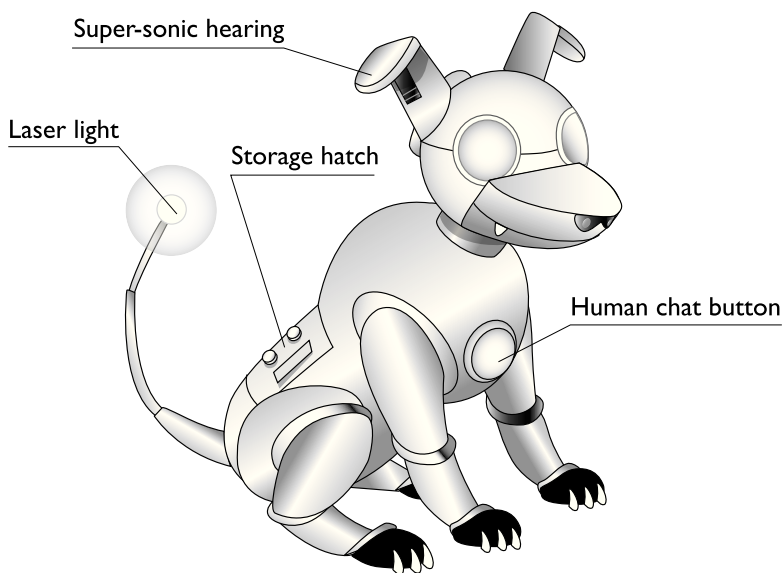

Suddenly Kai's dog, BC3, barked.

Woof! Woof!

The dog was at the back door. Its tail was wagging. That always meant trouble.

BC3 was Kai's buddy. Kai called him BC for short. BC was not just any dog. He was a dogbot and he was made for beast battling. BC3 was a gift from the BMC. He helped Kai do his job.

ROBOTIC CANINE BC3

Kai Masters was a Border Guard. He was twelve years old. It was his job to keep Earth safe. Kai and BC battled beasts that wanted to take over Earth. They were good at battling. But they were still learning.

Kai's dad was once a Border Guard. Then he became a Border Master. He was part of the Bordaria Master Command now.

The BMC helped Kai learn. Kai wanted to become a Border Master one day too. Just like his dad.

‘Stop it, BC,’ said Kai. ‘Be good.’

But BC barked louder.

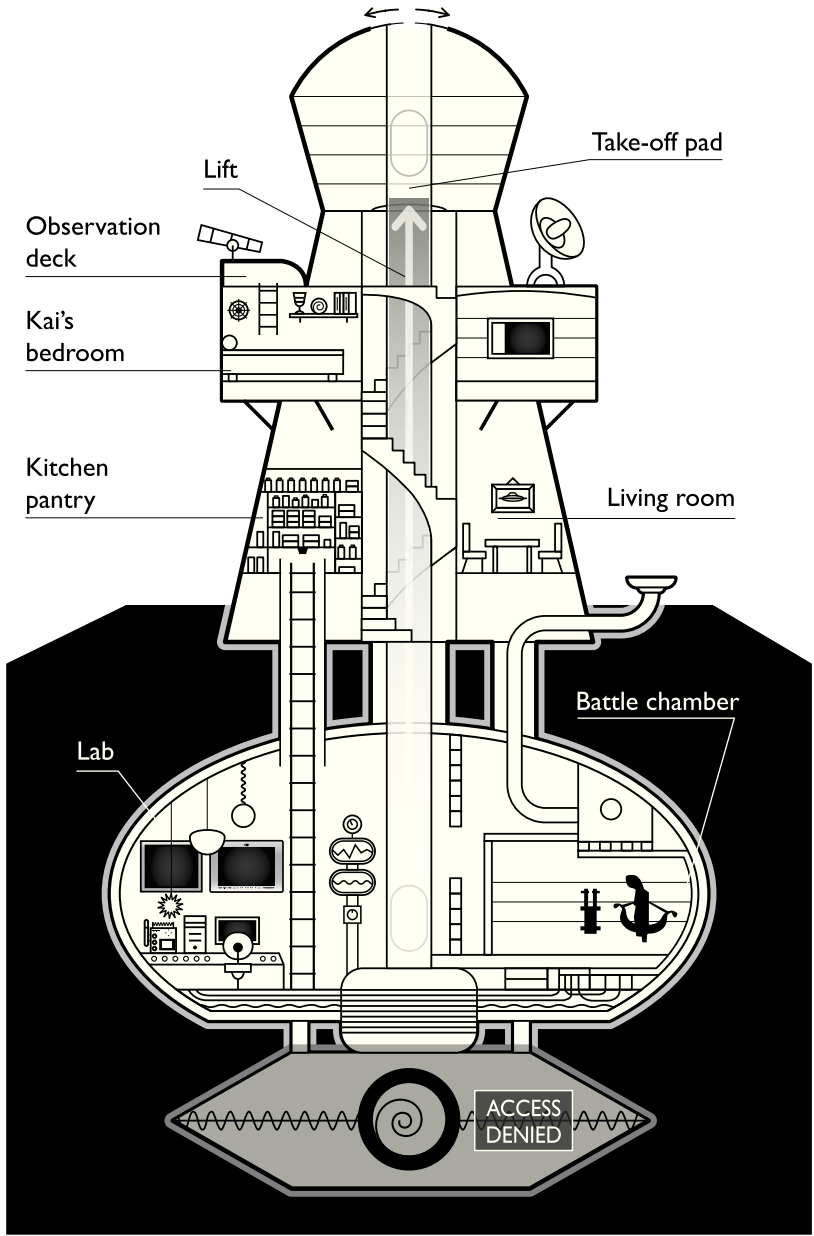

Woof! Woof!

He wants to go out badly,
thought Kai. And his tail is wagging.
That can't be good. Kai looked out the lighthouse's big window.

The lighthouse was Kai's home.
It looked old from the outside. But the inside was very new. It had secret rooms where Kai kept his battle gear.

Kai looked at the beach. 'What's that on the sand?' he asked.

BC barked again. 'Okay,' said Kai.

‘I’ll let you talk.’

Sometimes Kai liked BC to be just like other dogs. Sometimes he liked him to be a dogbot. BC was great in battles.

Kai hit the button so that BC could talk.

‘A bad smell is coming from the beach,’ said BC.

‘I can’t smell anything,’ said Kai. ‘But you can smell super well.’

‘Trouble on the beach,’ said BC.

‘We’d better go and look then,’ said Kai. ‘Good dog, BC.’
